

LAW TOO LENIENT IN RHODE CASE

John Reque of Chicago Sees No Excuse For Shooting Of
— Chas. Reque

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 14, 1911.
The Editor, The New North,
Rhineland, Wis.

Dear Mr. Editor:—
Several articles were published in your paper during October, regarding the accidental shooting of Chas. Reque, by John Rhode, near Three Lakes, Wis., on October 5. It seems that an unusual amount of sympathy has been given Mr. Rhode in your articles. It is indeed unfortunate that a man should, by his own carelessness take another man's life. It is more than that, it should be called murder when a man is standing in back of his own house and shot at close range—as in this case. Mr. Rhode's defense—that he thought he was shooting at a bear—that it was getting dark—and raining—is such a farce as to be laughable were the results not so tragic.

In the first place—what would Mr. Rhode do so far from home with a neighbor's rifle? Surely he would not have to go so far to try it. Was he out hunting for bear? He surely could not have been out hunting deer. There's a law against shooting deer in October and the authorities of course, could not consider such a possibility for a moment. And getting dark at 5 o'clock on October 5th! and raining! Surely Mr. Rhode has taxed his imagination too far. All the witnesses to the affair could testify that it was daylight at 5 o'clock—and that it did not even commence to rain until after Mr. Reque had been brought in to the house—a matter of about one-half hour later. That is, the witnesses could testify to the above facts if they had been given an opportunity. But not one of the people directly concerned—nor any of the witnesses who might possibly give any damaging testimony were notified of the trial—or anything concerning it until they read the verdict in the columns of your paper!

Is this what is called "Railroad-ness" a case? No inquest was held—not a thing done by the competent authorities holding office for that purpose at Rhineland. What is the explanation?

This is not an appeal for sympathy. It is a plea for precautionary measures—that would at least minimize the number of lives sacrificed annually in this manner. Although the defendant evidently is entitled to a certain amount of sympathy, the real sympathy ought to be reserved for the bereaved ones.

Respectfully,
JOHN REQUE,

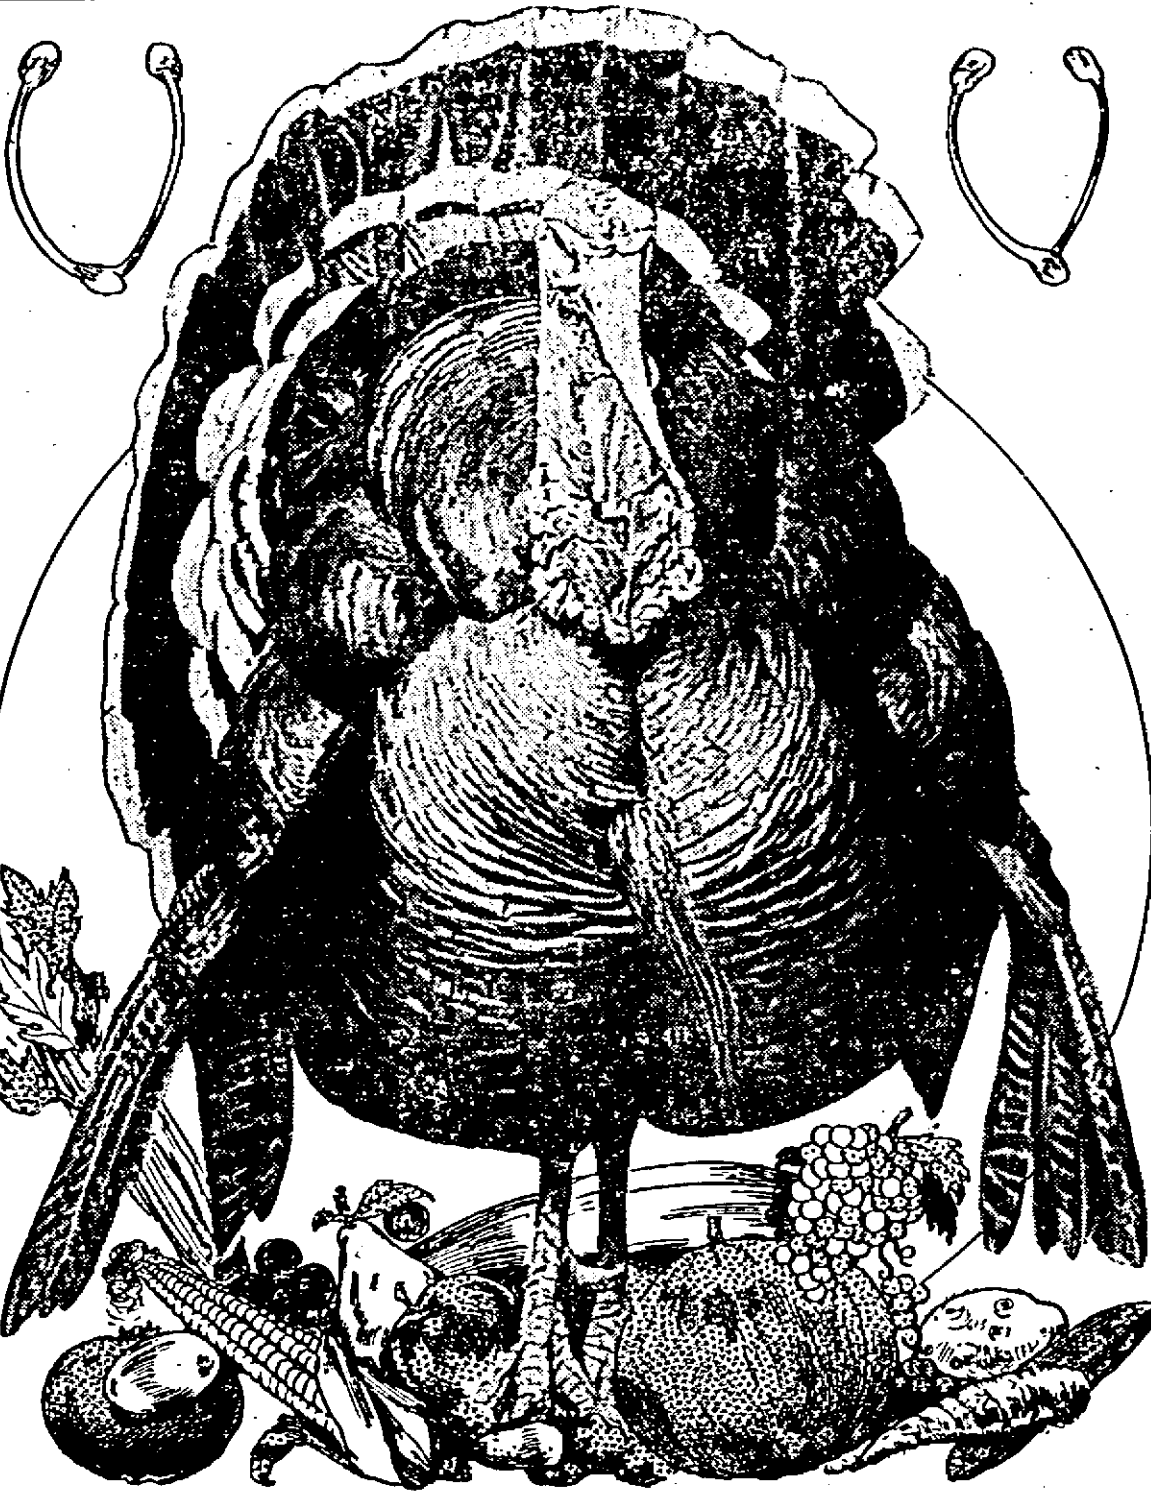

1600 Old Colony Bldg., Chicago.

FEW DEER KILLED

Deep Snow Makes Hunting A Difficult
Proposition

Owing to the deep snow in the woods hunters in quest of deer are meeting with poor results and only a small number of the animals have been killed during the past week. The snow makes it difficult for the hunters to get about and many have given up the chase and returned to their homes in disgust. In a letter to Martin Berg, deputy game warden, the attorney general states that deer heads can be shipped until January 3, but the license tag must be attached. The attorney general regards the head as a part of the carcass of the deer. This is an opinion which will interest local hunters. In the same letter the attorney general states that it is necessary to have a license in order to hunt rabbits except where they are being hunted on land owned by the hunter.

Misses Hazel Farley and Glenn Oxley of Antigo were here on a shopping tour, Tuesday.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

The people of this land, having by long sanction and practice set apart toward the close of each passing year a day on which to cease from their labors and assemble for the purpose of giving praise to Him who is the author of the blessings they have enjoyed, it is my duty as Chief Executive to designate at this time the day for the fulfillment of this devout purpose.

Our country has been signally favored in many ways. The round of the seasons has brought rich harvests. Our industries have thrived far beyond our domestic needs, the productions of our labor are daily finding enlarged markets abroad. We have been free from the curse of pestilence, of famine and of war. Our national councils have furthered the cause of peace in other lands and the spirit of benevolence has brought us into closer touch with other peoples, to the strengthening of the bonds of fellowship and good will that link us to our comrades in the universal brotherhood of nations. Strong in the sense of our own rights and inspired by as strong a sense of the rights of others, we live in peace and harmony with the world. Rich in the priceless possession and abundant resources where-with the unstinted bounty of God has endowed us we are unselfishly glad when other peoples pass onward to prosperity and peace. That the great privileges we enjoy may continue, and that each coming year may see our country more firmly established in the regard and esteem of our fellow-nations, is the prayer that should arise in every thankful heart.

Wherefore, I, William Howard Taft, President of the United States of America, designate Thursday, the thirtieth of November, next, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer, and I earnestly call upon my countrymen, and upon all that dwell under the flag of our beloved country, then to meet in their accustomed places of worship to join in offering prayers to Almighty God and devout thanks for the loving mercies he has given to us.

In witness thereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Chicago, this thirtieth day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and eleven, and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and thirty-sixth.

By the President:

WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT.

SELL LIQUOR TO THE REDSKINS

Two Woodruff Saloon Men Are Nabbed By Deputy U. S.
Marshall Appleby

Two liquor dealers of Woodruff, Edward Rudolph and George Smith, were arrested at that village Tuesday by Wm. H. Appleby, deputy United States marshal, on the charge of selling liquor to Indians. The men were brought here that night and Wednesday before United States court Commissioner Reeva gave bonds of four hundred dollars each guaranteeing their appearance for trial at the next term of federal court at Madison next month. A number of Indians will be detained as witnesses in the case.

Although saloon men know well the gravity of the offense of dispensing whiskey to Indians it is surprising the number of dealers who persist in disregarding the law, in this respect. In many of the small towns north of Rhineland it is common to see Indians in saloons, some of them under the influence of drink. They appear to have little difficulty in obtaining fire water and when unable to purchase it themselves directly from the dealer have been known to induce white men to secure the stuff for them. Before the law prohibiting drinking on trains in this state went into effect Indians were frequently seen in the coaches with flasks of liquor, and especially was this the case between Woodruff and Lac du Flambeau.

It is a well known fact that an Indian will not hesitate in informing on a saloon keeper who sells him intoxicants, as he knows that it means a trip for him to Madison as a witness and this he hugely enjoys.

SOO BRAKEMAN HURT

Fat Hickey May Lose Leg As Result Of Accident Wednesday

Pat Hickey, a Soo line brakeman, met with an accident while on duty in the local yards Wednesday morning which may cost him the loss of his left leg.

Hickey was assisting in making up a train when a car backed down upon him and in trying to escape he slipped and fell under the wheels. His leg was badly cut and bruised. At the hospital yesterday physicians thought that amputation of the limb might be avoided.

Hickey is a popular railroad man and his friends are sorry to learn of his misfortune.

BELLINI; TOPIC AT WOMAN'S CLUB

Italian Composer And His Operas
Comprise Tuesday's Program

The life and work of Bellini was given by Mrs. D. J. Cole Tuesday at the Woman's Club. Bellini was a man of wide culture and refinement, of the elegiac and sentimental type of Chopin. He had not the personal sorrows of the Polish master to make his grief morbid. He was like Gluck in tear provoking power of expressing perfect happiness. His music was replete with a flow of melody and striking orchestration, after the production of his opera I Puritani; the excitement attendant thereto was more than his delicate constitution could stand and eight months after its performance he died at the age of thirty-four years mourned by all Europe. He was the composer of ten operas.

The story of Sonambula was read by Mrs. Cole. It is an opera of two acts in which great artists have from time to time taken part. It was first produced in Milan in 1831; its next appearance was in Paris the same year and then in London.

The scene is laid in Switzerland. A group of villagers, a betrothed couple, a jealous maiden, the Seigneur of the country visiting his native land, the miller's wife, the foster mother of the betrothed maiden, who by the way gets into difficulty by her being a Sonambulist, comprise the tout ensemble of the opera.

The music is very sprightly and some of it birdlike and bewitching. It is replete with melodies of the purest and tenderest kind. It is exquisitely idyllic throughout and illustrates the charming pastoral scene.

Miss May Brown read an interesting paper on the opera Norma.

A serious opera in two parts, it was first produced during the season of Lent 1852 at Milan. It was first heard in London in 1853. The scene is laid among the Druids in Gaul after its occupation by the Roman Legions.

Norma was in lament over his country's bondage. His Druids and Gallic warriors were thinly disguised Italians of his time. The opera was a great advance on his previous works and this work may be fairly called a classic. The principal characters of Norma are the Druids and their priests, Norma the high priestess, Pollione the Roman Proconsul, Adiliza, a young virgin of the temple. The music of this opera is very beautiful. Norma's exquisite prayer, as she invokes peace from the moon in Casta Drva, electrified the world with its beauty and tenderness and still holds its place in popular favour. No opera was ever written in which such intense dramatic effect has been produced with simple melodic force and no Italian opera score is more likely to last than Norma.

The music for the day were airs from Norma.

Overture.....Piano Duet
Mrs. Hampton and Mrs. Stiles.
The War Song.....Quartette
Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Moore,
Mr. Harrison and Mr. Clemens.
Norma Calleth.....Piano Solo
Mrs. Harrison.

The sentiment for the day:
"Like softest music to attending ears—lbid".

At the close of the meeting the social hour completed the day.
Mrs. J. D. Cole.

GOODMAN IS RELIGIOUS

Two New Churches Are To Be Built There

Goodman, the bustling little mill town east of Rhinelander on the Soo line, is making great strides in church activities of late. Both the Catholic and Protestant congregations have recently made provisions for the maintenance of a resident clergyman. Plans for the construction of their respective church edifices are well underway and the buildings will be erected early next spring. Until then the school house will continue to be used as a meeting place by both denominations. Rev. A. O. Wade, who lately arrived from Eralind, has charge of the Protestant church and has won his way into the hearts of the Goodman people. He is an eloquent speaker and his sermons are features of the Sunday services.

A MOTHER'S GRATITUDE

Many a Mother in Rhinelander Will Appreciate the Following.

Many a strong man and many a healthy woman has much for which to thank mother. The care taken during their childhood brought them past the danger point and made them healthy men and women. Children are generally not only the most inconvenient to the mother, but would constitute a standing menace to the safety thereof; and retain it is oftentimes called a habit. It is not the children's fault—the difficulty is with the kidneys, and can be readily righted if taken in the proper way. A Rhinelander mother shows you how.

Mrs. Garrett Lee, 230 Lincoln St., Rhinelander, Wis., says: "We have given Doan's Kidney Pills a thorough trial in our family and know that they act just as represented. One of our children suffered from disordered kidneys and complained of backache. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally procured from Reardon's Drug Store and it did not take them long to bring complete and lasting relief."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

USE DEADLY RIFLES

A good many of the sportsmen who are on their way to the deer hunting grounds are carrying modern high power rifles that kill at a mile. Maybe they need them; but nobody has yet justified a claim that they do. Many good sportsmen are well content with the older fashions that shoot straight and kill at a reasonable distance, and they seem to get about as many deer as the other fellows. A rifle that kills at a mile, or that will go a long distance through woods and kill after it has penetrated several tree trunks, is a pretty dangerous weapon. The only way to use it is to give each hunter about six square miles of woods to himself.

Wanted—A boy to learn the printer's trade, machinery and type department. Inquire at The New North.

The Real editors of the local special interest organ patted themselves on the back last week in their own paper under the title "A Citizen": why not call it little man Friday, everybody is posted.

In another column of this paper is an article attacking Commission form of Government for City by an honest citizen who wishes his name withheld for the present at least. After some deliberation, we have decided to print this but we open the columns of the paper to any one wishing to support Commission form. The article is not printed because we believe in it or do not believe in it; we are open to conviction on either side. Thank fortune we have not made up our minds on a limited knowledge.

A large majority of the city officials oppose the location of the new Soo station across the river as inaccessible and expensive to the city. That is the reason why an appeal is to be taken before the State Railroad Commission. Of course this does not prove that the Commission will sustain the appeal. It all depends upon what kind of a case is put up against the new location. The Railroad Commission has jurisdiction over the location of a station as shown in the North Fond du Lac case.

CHANGES

One by one Mr. Taft has carried out the Roosevelt policies—and laid them to rest. The last obsequies were held over the Roosevelt opposition to the Cox gang in Cincinnati. Secretary Taft, speaking for the Roosevelt administration at Akron, condemned this corrupt gang as unworthy of support. President Taft only the other day urged Republicans to vote the Cox ticket, and hints if went home, registered, and voted it. He said that conditions have changed since his Akron speech. They have. Then Taft spoke for Roosevelt and against Cox; now he swears for himself and in favor of Cox.—La Follette's Weekly.

CARY ATTACKS UNIVERSITY

State Superintendent Cary has again broken out against the University of Wisconsin. This is not an unusual thing with him. He accuses Wisconsin of being mad with money and attempting to rule the whole state. Of course, Mr. Cary will get some support from those who wish to tear down our great state institution no matter by what method; but we fully believe the majority of the citizens of the state will read the article carefully and be governed accordingly. There is no question but what the special interests will use this article with much pleasure and hope because they fully realize the attitude of the University toward public plunder for private greed.

CENSURES TAFT'S METHOD

Ex-President Roosevelt in an editorial in Outlook, condemned Taft's Trust Busting Methods. Why should he not; why should not any honest man? Does every honest man not know that the Taft methods of Trust Busting is a farce. Mr. Roosevelt in his article says:

"The success of Wisconsin in dealing with the corporations within her borders, so as both to do them justice and to exact justice in return from them toward the public, has been signal; and this nation should adopt a progressive policy in substance akin to the progressive policy not merely formulated in theory but reduced to actual practice with such striking success in Wisconsin."

THEY TRY TO DECEIVE

After the recent November elections the special interest organs and organs announced in their columns that the people were tired of the progressives and demonstrated this fact in their votes. "Current Events", an absolutely non-partisan history of our times says:

"The Progressives of both parties seem to be in favor with the people. The Republican party suffered its worst defeats where it had put up 'standpat' candidates and made its best showing where it had nominated men of the 'progressive' way of thinking. Similarly the Democrats made their principal successes where their candidates were thought to be 'progressive,' and suffered wherever, as in Maryland, there was an impression among the voters that their candidates were of the 'non-progressive kind.'"

Socialist Gains in Cities

One of the features of the election was the great gains made by the Socialists in many of the important cities.

Why should the special interest organs try to deceive the voters? They are growing beyond this point.

WHAT MCCORMICK SAID

A fire of criticism was aimed at President Taft the other day in a statement issued by Medill McCormick, formerly editor and part owner of the Chicago Tribune.

McCormick said of the President: "He was not ashamed to use his patronage to coerce Republicans who dared to differ from him in a single bill. In this matter of patronage, the president's course can be commended, either for its morals, its logic, or its political wisdom."

"As Senator Cummins has pointed out in every one of the problems that has confronted this administration the president has sided with those who are opposed to the legitimate needs of the people. Not that he is not a well meaning president, but because he is unable to understand the needs of the times and the aspirations of the American people and he is unable to appreciate his inconsistencies."

INCREDIBLE!

Just as the reactionary organs are declaring that Collier's Weekly is trying to get on Taft's band wagon, Collier's comes out with the following:

"President Taft's indorsement of Boss Cox's ticket is the final horror. To support it at all (on the urgency and assurance of a politician!) was terrible enough; but to support it against so fitting and courageous a candidate as Hunt—really, words fail, and we are driven to punctuation and italics."

"What is the President coming to? After such an exhibition can he be even nominated? If there were an election tomorrow, would not Woodrow Wilson carry Ohio against him? Overwhelmingly! We have been patient with Mr. Taft. The Payne-Adrich tariff, the Ballinger inequities, the use of patronage against insurgents, the wool veto, the retention of Secretary Wilson and Solicitor McCabe, the turning of the Post-Office Department into a still more rigid political machine, the ruin of our relations with South America—in spite of how after blow, we have clung to the hope that the President would improve sufficiently to have a general balance of usefulness to his country. For sheer imbecile lack of backbone this last outrage is the worst."

GAME IS TIE

With all the pent up bitterness caused by Wisconsin's contesting the eligibility of Captain Pickering of the Minnesota foot ball team, the two teams played each other to a standstill; the game ending in a score of 6 to 6. Such bitterness as exists between two universities over a simple game of foot ball seems hard to realize, yet this is a stirring up of the old feud which has lasted for many years and may be the means of breaking off athletic relations between the two institutions, temporarily at least.

It was the battle which was to decide the foot ball championship of the middle west and Minnesota felt confident of victory. Her showing with other teams caused her to be picked as the favorite and the protest which threw out her captain made the Minnesota squad feel that Wisconsin's only hope lay in getting rid of the leader, but the fact that Pickering has already withdrawn from Minnesota University as he could not play the game, gives much color to the real reason for Pickering's attendance at the University. Minnesota defeated Chicago by a score of 20 to 6 and Wisconsin plays Chicago next Saturday, so if Wisconsin does not make an equal showing with Chicago, Minnesota will claim the championship, but Wisconsin claims that Chicago has developed much since her game with Minnesota.

Last Saturday Chicago defeated Pennsylvania 11 to 9. However, we will watch next Saturday's game with much interest.

REGARDING MR. BROWN

The local special interest organ, partly owned and largely controlled in policy by Brown Bros. writes under the cognomen "A Citizen": "Mr. E. O. Brown has served on the school board for years, giving to it time that is too valuable to be given away and yet this has been done from a sense of civic duty without pay."

We fully agree that Mr. Brown has done the same as other citizens have done and are doing, acting without pay as a member of the city school board and should receive no more credit than other men less able financially to give their time than Mr. Brown. We have known Mr. Brown's work as a member of the school board from the day he began service and we fully believe he has tried to be a good conscientious member so far as he felt he could spare his time. Of course, he has been greatly handicapped from the fact that he felt he could not take time to visit the city schools and know what was going on from actual observation as did his predecessor, Mrs. A. W. Shelton. It is impossible for a member of the board to act intelligently and wisely as chairman of the teachers' committee without visiting the schools.

Of course Mr. Brown is thoroughly equipped to be a member of the finance committee except that he is too close in financial affairs. It was he who made the illegal motion that no children be allowed to attend school without paying tuition, except they live with parents or guardian and the New North felt it its duty to insist that the school board rescind this illegal act which they did it not in resolution by act and let the children return to school. It is not our intention to belittle Mr. Brown as a public official and we believe he is as good an official as other members of the board and is entitled to credit so far as he faithfully fulfills his duties.

LAFOLLETTE STRENGTH GROWS

Wall Street is alarmed at the remarkable strength of the movement to nominate Senator LaFollette for the Presidency. It is likewise alarmed at the growing weakness of President Taft. Big Business has determined that Senator LaFollette must not be nominated, and it has reached the conclusion that President Taft must not be nominated. It is therefore preparing to bring out a candidate to displace the President.

Such, in brief, is the startling information contained in a statement campaign committee in Washington, by John D. Fackler, of Cleveland, who is in charge of the Progressive campaign in Ohio. The fact that Wall Street is determined to defeat Senator LaFollette at all costs is the best illustration of his remarkable strength throughout the country, a strength which is being demonstrated every time a newspaper takes a poll.

That Wall Street has not misjudged the strength of the sentiment in favor of Senator LaFollette is shown conclusively in two newspaper polls taken recently in Iowa and Oregon. In Oregon, the poll, taken by the Portland Journal, was state wide. Senator LaFollette received 301 votes from Republican voters responding, and 52 from Democratic voters, making his total 353 out of 607 who voted for a Republican candidate. Colonel Roosevelt received 163 votes, and President Taft received only 55 votes, one-twelfth of the total votes cast and less than one-sixth as many as LaFollette.

In Story County, Iowa, 129 voters responded to a poll taken by the Nevada Representative, with the following result:

For LaFollette, 94; for Taft, 35; not for either, 10.

It is now up to the chairmen of the several Republican State committees to decide whether the Republican voters of the country are to be given an opportunity to express their choice for a presidential candidate. The issue is clearly and squarely presented to them in a letter sent each chairman by Walter L. Houser, chairman of the Progressive Republican campaign committee.

DAY OF THANKS

Thanksgiving Day has been proclaimed for November 30th. The custom of having an annual day for returning thanks is almost prehistoric. All nations observed such festivals, usually in commemoration of good harvests, or rescue from some great calamity. When the Pilgrims on the verge of starvation, were rescued by the arrival of a shipload of provisions, their first act was that of holding a thanksgiving service. When the warcloud of the Revolution rolled away, church services of thanksgiving were held all along the Atlantic coast. The end of the Civil war was signalled by festivals of thanksgiving. This idea seems to be grafted into the national ideal of the United States. It is therefore, eminently fit and proper for the civil authorities of the Nation and the State to ask the people to gather in their places of worship and around the festival board to celebrate devoutly and joyously the good things which were given to us during the year.

The people of Rhinelander and of Oneida County have been very free from danger and misfortune. Good fortune has smiled upon us in the form of good crops, good business and good health. Our schools have progressed steadily; the black spots of revelry, debauch and immorality have been reduced. The officials have been faithful in the execution of their duties and the people have grown morally stronger, financially better off, and thereupon, happier.

It is right, therefore, that we observe this Thanksgiving day reverently, giving thanks for the good things we have received and praying for the continuation of God's blessings upon us in the country, upon the state and Nation; praying that we may be able to point to still greater progress a year from now. Laying aside our usual occupations, let us honor the day in the spirit in which it was proclaimed:—namely, thanksgiving and joy for the past and prayer for the future.

Let us remember the poor in our midst from our plenty, that the day may be one of general thanksgiving and rejoicing.

HIGH SCHOOL HAPPENINGS

By Our Staff Correspondent, Rev. "Shorty" Lewis

The officers for the Gl-wa-din were elected last week and it is planned to issue the first number of the paper about the 9th of December.

Mr. Hurn, who attended the Minnesota-Wisconsin game at Madison last Saturday gave a description of the game to the High School pupils Tuesday.

It is thought basket ball will start about the first of December. The prospect for a good team this year are bright.

The Junior basket ball team has challenged the Senior basket ball team for a game to take place in the near future. The Juniors are picked to win.

Class meetings were held by all the classes this week with the purpose of electing a class editor.

The Seniors held a party at the home of Genevieve Woodcock last Wednesday night. All present reported a very fine time.

Coming of Autumn.

Sometimes autumn may be perceived even in the early days of July. There is no other feeling like that caused by this faint, doubtful yet real perception, or rather prophecy of the year's decay, so deliciously sweet and sad at the same time.—Nathaniel Hawthorne

Man's Independence.

No iron chain nor outward force of any kind could ever compel the soul of man to believe or to disbelieve; it is his own indefeasible right, that judgment of his; he will reign and believe thereby the grace of God alone!—Thomas Carlyle.

Making Work Easy.

How many of you sisters ask our dear Lord to help you through the trials of the day when you get up in the morning? I do. Try this; it makes the work easy.—Tennessee Housewife.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ashton of this city and grew to manhood here where he has a large number of friends. For some time past he has been engaged in the lumber business at Minneapolis. He is a young man who commands the high esteem of all who know him.

His bride is not known in Rhinelander, but she is said to be a charming young lady and popular in her home city.

To Mr. and Mrs. Ashton the best of wishes for a long and happy marital life are extended.

A new post card view of the Oneida county court house was recently taken by Mrs. W. W. Carr. The picture is considered the best reproduction of the building yet produced.

The Doom of the Turk

By THEODORE H. BOICE

Now the turkey's days are numbered, and he won't have long to wait. For the proclamation's issued fixing our Thanksgiving date. At the end of this November there will be a royal feast. And we'll hear a cry for turkey from the highest to the least. There'll be pumpkin pie and bird's down on each eager throat to taste. There'll be many palate ticklers and the first cranberry sauce. And there'll be a lot of dainties some will feel inclined to shirk. But not one of all the eaters will decline a slice of turkey. There'll be children, mothers, fathers, brothers, sisters, uncles, aunts. With the turkey on the table as the object that enchants. And if they are still as hungry as on feasting days before. They'll not stop at the food serving, but will pass their plates for more. There'll be trouble for the carver, though he tries to carve best. When too many call for armchairs and too many want the breast. There'll be frequent calls for "bringin'" in the most persuasive tones. And before the feast is ended there'll be nothing left but bones. Be get ready, know God's will, and get ready, Mistress Het. For Thanksgiving day is coming, and you'll see your flesh then. Now, at last, your days are numbered, and you won't have long to wait. At the end of this November you'll be smoking on the plate.

AN INDIAN THANKSGIVING

Pueblos of New Mexico Do the
"Rabbit Hunting Dance."

THE Pueblo Indians of the new state of New Mexico have a day for thanksgiving and prayer contemporaneous with that of the paleface. Their prayer is a dance. That is the Pueblo Indian method of praying to the Great Spirit. The prayer dance is held in the latter part of November, according to the phase of the moon by which their days are regulated. The festival is known as the "rabbit hunting dance." Each village has a festival. There is a generous attendance of Pueblos, and whites are admitted as spectators. The villages of Zuni, Acoma and Taos, being remote, are seldom visited by white people on these festivals, but the one at Isleta, a few miles from Albuquerque, is more generally attended, especially by tourists.

When the chief of the village has officially designated the day the official crier mounts to the top of the "estufa," or place of worship, and announces that the prayer dance of the rabbit hunt will begin at daylight on the stated day. Runners are sent out to notify the Pueblo ranchers.

The dancers are dressed in white cotton pantaloons and cotton skirts of all colors, and some wear loose cotton gowns reaching to the feet. Crown hats with broad colored bands are most generally worn, yet some wear the paleface hat. Others are hatless and let their hair hang down over their backs. Each dancer carries a gun. Three or four men are standing at the head of the line, and they are given the signal by striking on a wooden drum, rattling gourd partly filled with pebbles and singing the song of the rabbit hunt, a slow, monotonous chant, punctuated with an occasional grunt.

When the music starts the line begins to sway, the men at first moving only their bodies. Then they put their feet in motion, raising each alternately without moving from their position. Later they chant the song and thump the ground with their feet more rapidly and violently, and then they give a yell and trot around the square, one following in the other's footsteps in time to the song and music. After making the round they break into circles after the manner of a quadrille, and the square is filled with parties of dancers. The men forming the circle do not join hands, for they need them in executing the movements with their guns in imitation of the hunt, showing how they will kill the rabbit on the morrow. The circles dance in a direction opposite to the course of the sun—that is, from west to east. This ceremony is repeated several times.

At first the dance is fast and furious, but finally decreases to a mere "hippy-hop" movement and then into the primary movement. The Indians continue their chant and dance as long as strength and breath remain.

Dear Old Thanksgiving Day.

I remember, I remember
Thanksgiving's long ago.
The day was always crisp and bright,
The ground was white with snow.
Neath buffalo robes we nestled close
In our big double sleigh
And dashed away to grandmamma's
To spend a happy day.

I remember, I remember
The farmhouse kitchen clean,
Up a whole shining painted floor
No speck was ever seen
And oh, the appetizing sights
The pantry shelves would show.
Where pickles, doughnuts, tarts and cheese
Stood in a tempting row!

I remember, I remember
The turkey of great size,
The squash and turnips, homemade bread
And golden pumpkin pies.
Grandpapa's bent and hoary head
I never can forget.
(I wonder if the dear old man
Can be a living yet?)

I remember, I remember—
Oh, I guess that's enough!
I really can't write any more
Of this old fashioned stuff.
I only know of it from books.
But this thought gives me joy—
We're further from that sort of thing
Than when I was a boy.

—Judge.

HUGHITT STALLED IN STORM

Son Of Northwestern President Unable To Reach Civilization

A press despatch from Bessemer states that Marvin Hughitt Jr., son of the President of the Northwestern road and himself freight traffic manager of the system, was marooned for several days in the northern wilderness by the blizzard of last Friday and Saturday. All of his father's influence, all of his own authority and every financial proffer failed to get Hughitt out of his snow bound trap.

Mr. Hughitt last week went to his estate near Bessemer for deer hunting. On Friday the blizzard made travel through the woods practically impossible and by his private telephone line to the nearest station, Mr. Hughitt ordered a special train to take him out to civilization. His property is on a logging road branching from the Northwestern's main line and his order went unfulfilled, for the railroad men were unable to take a locomotive down the branch to get the son of the head of the road.

The storm blocked all freight traffic on the Northwestern north of Rhineland.

DEITZ CASE BEFORE REID

He Will Hear Agreement As To Exceptions Saturday

Judge Reid of this circuit, who presided at the trial of John Dietz, is again to take a part in the case. A conference held between the attorneys in the case resulted in an agreement to appear before Judge Reid at Wausau, Saturday to reach a final agreement of exceptions to be embraced in the bill to be filed with the supreme court by the defense.

It was found, it is said, among other things that of the 1290 pages of testimony in the Dietz murder trial, when the defender of Cameron dam was tried for the killing of Deputy Sheriff Oscar Harp, at least 900 includes evidence absolutely immaterial to the case. This evidence, according to Maurice McKenna who represents Dietz, relates to some fifteen or twenty other offenses Dietz is alleged to have committed.

THANKSGIVING IN THE PRISONS

In All States the Incarcerated Get a Good Dinner.

IF you were in prison—and the reader may be for all that—you wouldn't feel particularly like giving thanks, would you? Yet the prisoners in penitentiaries and jails have special reason to be thankful on Thanksgiving day, for then it is that they get the best dinner of the year, even better than those served on Christmas and the Fourth of July, when special dinners are served to incarcerated people.

Thanksgiving day is celebrated in the poorhouses and prisons as well as in palaces and churches. It dawns for the pauper as well as for the prince and sometimes means more to the poor man than to the millionaire. There are no more contented Thanksgiving diners than those who will partake of their dinners behind the bars and no better appetites to be found than theirs.

Thanksgiving day is one of the great days in the state prisons, paradoxical as that may seem. Christmas day, Fourth of July and Thanksgiving are the three milestones that mark off the convicts' year, for those are the only three days of the 365 when they are allowed to speak aloud and even to sing, if they wish. And on those days also they enjoy a bountiful repast of much better quality than usual.

In the almshouses also Thanksgiving day is marked by a specially good dinner and a relaxation from work and discipline. Some of the specially favored paupers will receive boxes of food or of fruit from friends, and there is great rejoicing. The usual pall of misery is lifted for a day, and smiles are seen on sad faces and light in eyes long dimmed by age or sorrow.

At the Kings county almshouse, in Flatbush, N. Y., the recurrence of Thanksgiving day is an event looked forward to by the inmates, some of whom take pride in their long terms of life there. In the women's wards especially there is a truly feminine atmosphere of expectancy and excitement. There is gossip about the dinner in anticipation as well as a certain furlishing up of the uniform dress worn, as though in preparation for some social function.

Thanksgiving is celebrated by a special church service in the morning, after which a period of rest and conversation is enjoyed. Then at noon there is a bountiful feast of chicken and turkey, with cranberry sauce and potatoes. And there is tea, dear to the palate of the lady pauper.

There are many young faces among the women who will eat their Thanksgiving dinner at this almshouse. Some of them have been committed as vagrants, but their faces are happier than many of the women's faces once seen in the cells and the shops of New York.

At Blackwell's Island workhouse, where New York city offenders are held, the dinner will be a bountiful feast of chicken, with the usual accompaniments, for both men and women. Many of the tramps at present sojourning there make a special endeavor to get ten days in the workhouse in order to enjoy the holiday feast.

CASWATTER'S TURKEY

ART AND A THANKSGIVING DINNER

ON Nov. 23 things looked pretty gloomy for Sebastian Caswatter. He had intended to celebrate Thanksgiving day as it should be celebrated, with all the proper accompaniments. But the trouble was that Caswatter did not know just exactly where the money was to come from. With rare providence he had set apart a five dollar bill from the sale of his "Prometheus," but the coal had run out, and more had to be bought.

"Never mind," said Caswatter; "I'll take that 'Autumn Sunset' down to Perdigon tomorrow. I'd made up my mind that I'd keep it if I couldn't get a hundred for it, but if Perdigon wants it for fifty he can have it."

Mrs. Caswatter almost wept, for she knew how much her artist husband thought of that "Autumn Sunset." He would almost rather have parted with his "Solitude" or his "Gloomings" or his "Achilles in His Tent." It was a masterpiece. "Solitude," "Gloomings," "Achilles" were also masterpieces. There were few things that Caswatter painted that were not masterpieces. The great difficulty with them was that they would not sell.

"But then," Caswatter would say, "I don't paint to sell. It is my misfortune that I believe in art. I follow my ideals as Michelangelo, Guido and Burne-Jones followed theirs. I suffer from neglect now, but the time will come when I shall be recognized."

On the 24th Caswatter took the "Autumn Sunset" under his arm and offered it to Perdigon. But Perdigon declined to give him the fifty for it—in fact, he wouldn't have it at any price. Caswatter bore his disappointment with an air of indifference, but he felt it nevertheless, and it was with a rueful face that he met Mrs. Caswatter on his return.

He went upstairs to his attic studio and began to pace the floor in great agitation. He was an artist, but he was also a father, and the thought of little Leonard's disappointment when invited to sit down to pork chops was maddening, and the pork chops seemed inevitable. As he walked and gnawed his beard his eye fell upon "Solitude," and he made a sudden resolve. He would have that Thanksgiving dinner at all costs. He wrapped the picture carefully in the paper that he had just taken off the "Autumn Sunset" and started out.

Perdigon looked at it with his under lip pushed out and said:

"Well, I'd like to make you an offer for it, but—see, it isn't the sort of thing that sells. I'll tell you, though, if you would like to leave it here I'll do the best I can with it on a commission."

"I suppose you wouldn't care to advance me a little on it?" said Caswatter.

"Why, I'd like to, but you know that's altogether against our rules."

"I'll leave it," said Caswatter. Caswatter went back to his studio and did some more walking. Usually he dismissed household cares easily from his mind, but this dinner he had counted on so surely. He could see it—actually see it. He laughed savagely and, sitting down before his easel, began to sketch the outlines of a mammoth turkey. Then the idea took him, and he forgot his woes. Gradually the turkey took shape and form, and a celery glass topped with a fringing bouquet of stalks and leaves appeared beside it, then a bowl and a background of pines. He drew up his stool closer and began to spread on color and worked more and more feverishly until the waning light forced him to desist.

Early on the morning of the 25th he arose, and attacked his "Barnyard Feast" with undiminished fury. By 11 o'clock it was finished. He took it down into the little dining room, set it up on the mantelpiece and then called Mrs. Caswatter to look at it. "There's your Thanksgiving dinner," he said. "We'll look at that and imagine it's real."

Mrs. Caswatter was visibly impressed. "What a genius you are!" she said admiringly. "That turkey looks as if it had just been taken from the oven. I can smell it. And the cranberry sauce!"

At 12 o'clock Mrs. Caswatter tapped at her husband's door. "My dear," she said, "I hate to disturb you, but Mr. Tublin, the grocer, is down below. He says he's called for the balance of his account. I told him you were busy, but he said he'd like to see you and he'd wait."

Caswatter groaned. "Well, I'll be right down, dear," he said.

When he went downstairs he found Tublin in the dining room standing before the turkey picture, open mouthed with admiration.

"A fine picture that, sir," he said with feeling.

"About that balance—how much is it?" asked the artist.

"It's only five thirty-five," replied the grocer. "I was just passing, and I never saw a prettier piece of work than that. It'd make a dandy thing for my window."

"You look in next week some time and I'll pay you," said Caswatter.

"Much obliged," said the grocer absently. "Now, that picture—I wonder where I could buy one like it."

"You can have that for a ten dollar bill," said Caswatter.

The grocer instantly produced a fat pocketbook and, taking out a bill, laid it on the table and advanced to the picture.

"Here, it's wet yet," said Caswatter.

"So it is," said the grocer. "Well, I must handle it carefully. That's going to help trade this afternoon and this evening. Good day, Mr. Caswatter."

Caswatter looked at the ten dollar bill on the table. Then he smote his forehead.

"Oh, art!" he cried in anguish.

But an exact replication of the pictured turkey smoked on his table next day. And if when his last piece of pumpkin pie was consumed Caswatter was not thankful he certainly looked it.

XMAS SEAL SALE WILL START SOON

School Children Of the City Will Conduct The Work For Prizes

The Anti-Tuberculosis Association expect to start their annual sale of Christmas seals in a few days. The school children are to be selling agents, and the city merchants are offering rewards to the children and the grades in the city and rural schools selling the most seals. Part of the money raised in this sale, goes to the state campaign against tuberculosis and part stays here in the city and county to be used to help defray the expenses of maintaining a visiting nurse, and for tuberculosis cases. It is to everyone's interest to buy these seals to help stamp out the white plague, for in present conditions everyone is threatened with the disease and no one is immune. A betterment of conditions and the proper care in all cases of tuberculosis is the only way to get at the root of the evil, and the support of every individual is needed to accomplish anything. The sale in Rhinelander in previous years has been very much lower than in other cities our size. Let this be a banner year and let everyone have his hand in making it so.

GOD'S COMMANDS FOR THANKS ARE BUT LOVING REQUESTS.

By Rev. Dr. RUSSELL H. CONWELL of Philadelphia.

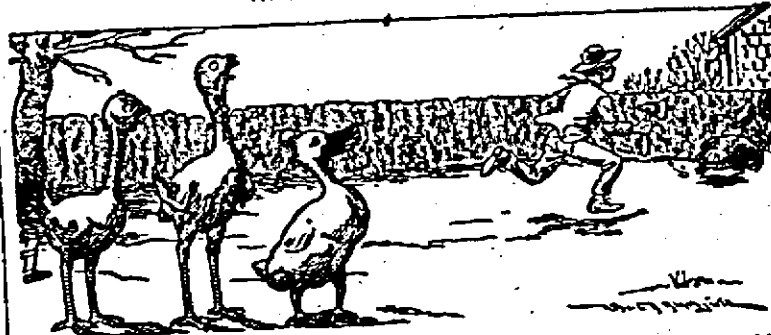

GOD commands us to "give thanks, and all his commands are but directions to do those things which are for our good. His commands are in reality but loving requests."

Thanksgiving day is but a reminder of the great privileges and of the blessing which all receive who train themselves to give thanks.

It is of far more benefit to the recipient of a Christmas present to be grateful than it is to receive a gift itself. It is very wise to be grateful for last year's Christmas presents.

Cultivate a habit of mind which will make you grateful to God and to all your friends and ancestors, for with a grateful heart you will appreciate much more and be in every way a better and happier man.

HOW CHRONIC COUGHS

Are Being Cured by Vinol
New Haven, Conn.—"I was troubled with a most persistent chronic cough for a long time and had tried so many remedies and prescriptions without benefit that I was discouraged. I was persuaded by my friends to try Vinol. After taking the second bottle, my cough left me, and I must say I never felt better in my life. I can also recommend Vinol to any one in a run-down condition as the best possible remedy."

It is the combined action of the medicinal elements of the cods' livers, aided by the blood-making and strength-creating properties of tonic iron which makes Vinol so efficient in curing chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis—at the same time building up the weakened, run-down system.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you.

Don't let your children suffer; if they're fractious, peevish, puny, cross, give them Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea; most effective and thorough for children; absolutely harmless.

J. J. Reardon.

Frank Jolin left Monday morning for Stevens Point where he will become a shining Benedict. The future Mrs. Jolin is well known in the city and the friends of the couple join in wishing them a pleasant journey through life.

Bits of News Pertaining To The Soo and Northwestern Railroads

At a cost of over half a million dollars the Soo line has put into service thirty-five new all steel cars of the most luxuriant design. The cars were manufactured by Barney & Smith of Dayton, Ohio, and are of age and aside from her husband and leaves a son, Jay Miller, also of the town of Pelican. She was a good woman, highly regarded by all who knew her and her death proved a source of deep regret.

It is one to 438 that a railroad man will be killed on the job and one to thirteen that he will be injured. That is the ratio shown by the report of the interstate commerce commission. During the twelve months ending June 30, 1,000 persons were killed and 150,159 were injured. Of the killed only 356 were passengers.

Joe Rindal of this city has invented an improved railroad time table which he hopes to introduce with success on some of the large rail way systems. A description of the invention will be given in a future issue of this paper. Joe is a telegraph operator and worked out the time table during leisure hours.

Expressmen on Soo and Northwestern trains through this part of the state have been kept unusually busy during the last ten days owing to the heavy deer shipments.

Leonard Eake, the 17-year-old boy who wrecked the Soo line Velvet special at Fremont, Sept. 4, and caused the death of three and severe injury to three others has been sentenced to the state industrial school at Waukesha until he is 21. The lad pleaded guilty in circuit court at Waupaca. His motive for wrecking the train, according to his confession, was revenge as he said he had been refused a ride on a hard car some time before by a section foreman and wanted to "get even."

The railroads, or a large portion of them, at least, having refused to grant excursion rates for the holidays, as has been their custom in the past, there will be fewer people traveling at that time and more people able to start savings bank accounts at the beginning of the new year. Thus have the railroads performed another public service, though perhaps without intending to do it.

The west bound Soo limited train was several hours late last Friday morning on account of the heavy snow through Canada.

The people of Clintonville are urging the Northwestern railway company to build a new depot at that station. The railroad officials do not take kindly to the proposition and it is probable that the old shack there will continue in service for several years to come.

HOME FROM IDAHO
Mike Kearns returned to the city Friday from St. Maries, Idaho, where he spent the last ten months as foreman of a logging crew. He was assisting in cutting the timber which was burned over by the big forest fires in the fall of 1910.

Mr. Kearns says that as far as times are concerned there is but little difference between the west and Wisconsin. Wages are a trifle higher there but the cost of living is a little more. Mr. Kearns will return to St. Maries about March 15 next.

LOCAL MEN ATTEND COURSE

Several persons from this county have taken advantage of the short course at the College of Agriculture of the University of Wisconsin at Madison. The course comprises a session of 14 weeks in each of two years and includes instruction in all lines of agriculture. The session begins this year December 2. Tuition is free and the total expenses are small. Most students go through the 14 weeks with an expense of only about $100.

Those from this county who will probably attend this year for the first time are as follows: Chas. H. Jewell, Rhinelander; Ray Brown, Rhinelander.

Robert Riley returned Tuesday from a business trip to Minneapolis.

MRS. MASON MILLER DEAD

Old Town Of Pelican Resident Answers Final Call

The news that Mrs. Mason Miller, wife of a prominent town of Pelican farmer, had suddenly passed away at her home last Thursday night, came as a sorrowful surprise to the lady's many friends in Pelican and this city. While for sometime she had been in poor health her condition was not thought to be serious and her death was unexpected.

Mrs. Miller was fifty-three years of age and aside from her husband and leaves a son, Jay Miller, also of the town of Pelican. She was a good woman, highly regarded by all who knew her and her death proved a source of deep regret.

The remains, accompanied by members of the family, were taken to Mrs. Miller's old home at Lake Odessa, Mich., for interment.

WILL BUILD SUMMER LODGE

R. F. Angell of St. Charles, Ill., who spends the summers at Tomahawk Lake, has purchased of Mr. Sanders a tract of twenty-five acres there and will build on it a commodious summer home. The land borders on Tomahawk Lake and is beautifully situated.

While hunting near there last week Mr. Angell was successful in killing a large buck that weighed nearly 250 pounds. He was greatly elated over his good fortune and remarked that Oneida county had the best hunting grounds in the north west.

NOTICE

HARDWOODS ADVANCE

There has been a noticeable increase in orders for low grade hardwoods within the last month. As there is less than the usual amount of dry low grade stock in both hard and soft woods available for present shipment, and with a heavy curtailment in production in sight, the manufacturers are very much encouraged over the outlook for higher prices and a good healthy demand for cull stock, which in the past has been moving slowly.

Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Elliott are home from Toronto and Owen Sound, Ont., where they spent two weeks. They were called to the latter city by the serious illness of his mother who at the time of their departure was improving and thought to be out of danger. While at Toronto Dr. and Mrs. Elliott had the pleasure of hearing Harry Lauder, the famous Scotch comedian at Massey Hall and the doctor has been humming Scotch ditties ever since. He says that "It is awful nice to eat your breakfast in your bed on Sunday morning."

The recital given by Mrs. Jessie Langdon-Hampton, Monday eve, Nov. 20, was a very decided success. The hall was well filled and each number greatly enjoyed. Much credit is due Mrs. Hampton in placing music of merit before the public. The vocal number of Mrs. Sawtell and instrumental number of E. K. and R. A. Reik and Mrs. Hampton was much appreciated.

EVENTS OF WEEK IN OTHER TOWNS

Items of More or Less Importance Boiled Down From Neighboring Exchanges

Prentice—
The present winter promises to be exceedingly lively in this vicinity as far as woods operations are concerned. A number of camps will run and over two hundred men will be given employment. A greater number of wood products will be taken out than for many seasons past. Wages are good.

Antigo—
The prospects appear favorable for a new bank for Antigo. A movement is now on foot for the organization of such an institution and more than $10,000 has been subscribed. Those interested in the venture are desirous of securing the Goldberg building, temporarily occupied by the First National Bank. It is understood that the future plans depend largely upon whether or not this corner can be purchased at a reasonable figure.

Ashland—
The vicinity of the now famous Dietz farm on the Thornapple river is this year the scene of more deer hunting than it has been since the appearance of John Dietz. With Dietz in prison, the timidity of hunters in former years has no excuse for existence, and, according to reports, they are crowding into the territory, which is admittedly one of the best deer hunting grounds in northern Wisconsin.

Phillips—
C. J. Breary of Westboro died suddenly while hunting near that place. He had shot a large deer and in the excitement it is thought that he was stricken with a severe attack of heart trouble as he was found by a companion a few minutes after the report of the gun sitting on a log, dangerously ill. He was assisted to camp where he passed away shortly after his arrival. Mr. Breary was a high grade Mason and prominent in his community.

Marinette—
While standing on a side track in the yards at Peshtigo ready to be taken on the daily trip to Iron Mountain, the car of the W. & M. railway containing smoking and baggage apartments and the heating plant was badly damaged when the boiler of the heating plant exploded with such force that it tore the sides out of the end of the car, wrecked partitions and broke every window in the coach. Fortunately the explosion occurred when the car was unoccupied.

Superior—
Student users of cigarettes in the Superior High school will hereafter be barred from athletics. The enforcement of this rule by Principal Schofield, it is admitted, will be severely felt, as the majority of those prominent in athletics are confirmed smokers.

Medford—
Search for Alfred Bonnevillie, the 17-year-old hunter, has been given up owing to the recent heavy fall of snow in this locality. He left his home Saturday intending to hunt deer and did not return. It is thought that he met with an accident and may be buried under the snow.

Merrill—
This city is to have two other industries. A factory to manufacture bath room accessories, with a capital of $25,000 and an overall factory capitalized at $30,000, are among the new propositions which the Merrill Chamber of Commerce is considering. Financial aid of a substantial nature has been offered to both concerns.

This is the Stove Polish YOU Should Use

Black Silk Stove Polish

It is said in a trial. Use it on your cook stove, your parlor stove or your gas range. If you don't find it the best stove polish you ever used, your dealer is authorized to refund your money.

Black Silk Stove Polish is sold in 25-cent and 50-cent tins.

BLACK SILK STOVE POLISH WORKS

Ironwood—
Matt Tilka, a farmer who lived near Van Buren, perished in the blizzard of Saturday last. His body, frozen stiff, was found by three farmers only two hundred feet from a dwelling house. The horse which the man had been driving wandered into the woods and when found was nearly dead from exposure. Tilka was a heavy drinker and when he left Ironwood Saturday for his home was well under the influence of intoxicants.

Mosinee—
The first corn show held in Mosinee under the auspices of the State Bank of Mosinee was such a great success that it was decided to make the show an annual feature hereafter. Special premiums of pure bred grain were given and in nearly every instance were planted with exceptional results, and the indications are that exhibits will be made this year that will rival any grains raised in the state and that in an educational and demonstrative nature, the corn show will be of more direct benefit to the farmer than an institute or county fair.

Mellen—
A party of Marshfield and Milwaukee furniture men made an inspection of the veneer plant at Glidden recently with the intention of purchasing it. Should a change in ownership occur the purchasing company will convert the plant into a manufacturing institution to make veneer, excelsior, furniture, mattresses, springs and etc. Such a plant would mean a great deal to the future of the town and the people are anxiously awaiting definite news.

DROP IN MILK
Milk took a sudden fall last Friday forenoon, not the price, but the lacteal fluid itself when the delivery wagon of the Rhinelander Creamery Company accidentally upset in front of the milk station on Stevens Street. The mishap was caused by the wagon coming in contact with a high snow bank. Several gallons of milk were lost and the wagon was slightly damaged.

SEES BLACK DEER
Scarcely a season passes but what some hunter either sees or shoots a white deer. It remains however, for Guy Clark, a Tomahawk man, to introduce a new one in regard to colored deer. Clark claims that while in the woods a few days ago he saw a pure black deer, but unfortunately was unable to get a shot at it.

BOXING CARNIVAL IS MONDAY NIGHT

Sohr and Christensen Will Go Ten Rounds At Grand Opera House

An exceedingly strong card has been arranged for the boxing carnival to be held at the Grand Opera House next Monday night and followers of the game will be given their money's worth.

The program consists of three events the main exhibition being a ten round contest between Benny Sohr and Johnnie Christensen for the light weight championship of the city. The boys are going through a strenuous course of training in preparation for their meeting and the bout promises to be of the fast and spicy nature. Both Sohr and Christensen have won several ring contests of late and are well known in northern Wisconsin sporting circles.

Payette and Genett, two nifty local lads, will go on for a semi-wind-up of six rounds.

The curtain raiser will be a four round go between Ad. Wolcast Jr. and Hobo Dougherty Jr. These are two clever Rhinelander chaps whose real identity will be disclosed when they enter the ring.

Noah White, promoter of the show, urges all those who desire to witness a good clean exhibition of the manly art to be in attendance

First number on the card begins at 8:30 o'clock sharp. General admission 75 cents. A few choice ring-side seats at $1.00.

LIBRARY NOTES

Two new traveling libraries of German and Norwegian books were received last week from the Wisconsin Library Commission. The books have been selected with great care by competent people conversant with the language. Every one reading these foreign languages has the privilege of drawing them out for home use.

Other new books are:

Forbush—Church Work With Boys. Practical chapters on the principles of church work with boys, how to conduct a boys' club, the work of a men with boys, etc. The author's attitude towards amusements is especially broad-minded and sensible.

Lyman—Story Telling: What to Tell and How to Tell It. A sane and illuminating little book by an experienced story teller. The lucid and concise talks on reading aloud and on telling stories for a definite ethical and educational end make the book helpful to mothers as well as to story-tellers and teachers.

There is also a list of books suggested for the story-teller.

Wilbur—Every day business for women.

A valuable and easily understood explanation of business and legal methods every woman ought to know. The proper drawing and endorsing of a check, bank deposits, notes, protests, contracts, bills and receipts, business relations with railroads and hotels, taxes, stocks, wills and account keeping are some of

JUVENILE—

Medical Dinner

Sallie, a dainty cook down in Virginia, has been taught by her mistress to cook chickens en casserole—an accomplishment in which she takes great pride. It is always done on occasions of state, and Sallie hunts up company to show her prowess. Sunday morning recently she came in gleefully with the remark: "Yonder come Mr. Clifford up de' road to see Miss Judith. Hadn't I better cook the chicken in castor oil?"

CIRCUIT COURT NOTES

Several Divorces Are Granted At The Adjourned Session

The adjourned session of the fall term of circuit court for Oneida county is being held in Rhinelander this week, Judge A. H. Bell presiding.

The Doolittle tax title cases involving taxes in the town of Minocqua in 1903 and 1910 have occupied two days of the present session.

The case of Blanche Shepard vs. Albert Shepard was settled.

A divorce was granted Anna C. King from Fred King. Luther D. Hayford was granted a divorce from Della Hayford. Theresa M. Hass was granted a divorce from George Hass.

The case of the Menasha Woodware Company vs. Minnie and Chas. E. Tobey is for trial Friday.

TAME GULLS OF SHETLAND

Each Family in Lerwick Has Its Own Flock Which the Children Feed.

There are many small villages in the world that have only one street; but Lerwick, in Shetland, besides having only a single street possesses only one tree, and it is not a very tall one either. There are no land birds there, not even a sparrow; but the sea gulls are plentiful.

The inhabitants of Shetland are very proud of their tree and very kind to the gulls, of whom the children make pets. Children who are brought for the first time to see the wonders of one-streeted Lerwick are always shown, as a great curiosity, "the only tree in Shetland."

The sea gulls are the sparrows of Lerwick; and as such they have a greater share in the town's life than the sparrows of London. In the morning you will note that a sea gull sits on every chimney pot. Sea gulls swoop and hover over every roof in town. The air is full of their strange, high, plaintive, haunting cries.

Every house has its own familiar sea gull and every street its own band of them. But, according to the Fruit Magazine, they never mix. The children in each house have a pet name for their own particular sea gull; and, having called them by those names, they feed them every day.

Each sea gull knows what is meant for him. No bird attached to one house ever seeks to eat the food scattered from the house next door. He does not dare to do so. So all day long the sea gulls hover and call over the roofs of Lerwick.

The people of the town if they come across a little pile of rice laid upon the roadway step over it with care. They know that it has been placed there for some sea gull. And at night the sea gulls leave their appointed chimney-pots and fly gracefully away to their resting places on the rocks of the Isle of Ness.

BEING BRISK A GOOD HABIT

Children Should Be Taught Quickness in Running Errands and in Dressing Themselves.

If a child is allowed to acquire a slow, dawdling manner when told to do any particular duty it will be found very difficult to effect a cure, and this means a serious hindrance to success in after years.

Teach them while very young to do everything promptly and to finish what they have commenced. If they are sent on a message make them to clearly understand that they must go direct to the shop and not loiter on the way. Children may be seen at any time carrying a message and lingering to look at everything on the way.

I often wonder at what time the poor mother gets her messages home, when I see a child loitering about instead of walking along briskly. Quickness in dress, also, should be insisted upon. If too young to dress themselves they should be taught to keep still while the mother or sister puts on their clothing.

At a later age forbid any running about the house until fully dressed—and quickly dressed. Some little maidens are rather fond of looking in the glass while dressing and this is a habit which should be at once repressed. It not only encourages vanity but it causes the child to waste much valuable time.

Valuable Jamaican Woods.

The most valuable of the Jamaican woods are the yaca, the bully tree, ironwood, lathoe, juniper, cedar, mahogany, lignum vitae, ebony, fiddlewood, yoke, prickly yellow, broad leaf, soapwood, cashew and calabash. Hardwood is used principally for railway sleepers, telegraph poles and fence posts, cedars used chiefly for native shingles and furniture, and other woods are used in building houses in the highlands. Unfortunately the streams are not large enough to log them to the coast, but there is no reason why portable engines and saw-mills should not be utilized so as to turn these woods into the market.

Truth or Repose.

$25 Kitchen Cabinet

That is what we are going to give for the best loaf of bread baked from

ARDEE FLOUR

We have secured the exclusive agency for this northern brand of flour and by actual experience can guarantee it to be the highest grade of flour on the market. Nothing but Dakota and Minnesota hard spring wheat is used in the manufacture of ARDEE FLOUR but even with such wheat, the finest that can be had, much depends on how the miller grinds it. The patent grade, like cream, depends on how much of the lower grade is skimmed off; the more skim milk, the richer the cream. ARDEE flour is the richest of the flour portion of the wheat, twice as much of the lower grade being taken out as in ordinary flours. Ardee is a very dry, thirsty flour, which demonstrates quality, it absorbs more moisture, makes more loaves from a sack and costs less per loaf. Bread made from Ardee flour is delicious, very light, creamy, white loaves that keep moist and fresh many days, bread that will delight the family and of which any house-wife may be proud. And to make it an inducement for everybody to try a sack of this flour, we will hold a

Bread Baking Contest

Friday, December 22d, 1911

AT WHICH TIME WE WILL GIVE FOR

1st Prize: Kitchen Cabinet. 2d Prize: Two Sacks Ardee Flour.
3rd. Prize: One Sack Ardee Flour.

Contest will be conducted in a fair, square manner. Every loaf of bread will be numbered so that it will be judged on its own merits regardless of the contestants. We will have an expert from the Hubbard Mill to test all bread entered in this contest by a scientific method.

Important Rules of the Contest.—One loaf of bread is required from Ardee flour, and only one from each family. Bread must be baked the day before the contest and delivered at The Armory by one o'clock, Friday, December 22nd, 1911. Professional bakers are not allowed to enter this contest. Bread can be baked in any size tin to enter this contest.

Wanted every house-wife in Rhinelander and the surrounding country to take part in this bread baking contest, which will be of benefit to every progressive house keeper. An expert judge and lecturer on the art of bread making will be here on Friday, December 22nd, from the Ardee flour home mill, remember the time, a complete bread making demonstration will be demonstrated to all present, nothing of this kind so far has been given here in Rhinelander and every lady that takes personal interest in good bread making or how to make good bread better is cordially invited to take personal interest and attend this lecture in order to make this a success.

And as bread is used in our daily fare more than any one article of food it is interesting to learn the lesson how bread has earned its true title the "staff of life". Let your next sack of flour be Ardee, try it. And if not, you are welcome just the same to attend our lecture and judging of the bread which takes place at the Armory on Friday, Dec. 22, at 2 o'clock. Remember the time and the place and the phone call 156 for Ardee flour.

Respectfully Yours,

ROYAL Baking Powder

Absolutely Pure

Makes Home Baking Easy

With minimum trouble and cost biscuits, cakes and pastry are made fresh, clean and greatly superior to the ready-made variety found in the shop. Variety, and danger of alum food is avoided.

Try This Test in a "Wear-Ever" Utensil

Pour out pint of milk into a saucepan. Place over a low fire and without stirring let the milk boil down to one-quarter pint. The milk will not be scorched.

THAT'S because aluminum is a better distributor and retainer of heat than other materials of which cooking utensils are made.

You can cook quicker and you therefore save fuel.

"Wear-Ever" utensils are made without joints, seams or soldered parts, from thick, hard sheet aluminum. They have no coating to peel, crack or blister. They cannot rust, cannot form poisonous compounds with acid fruits or foods, and they last a generation.

Let us supply you with the one-quart sample saucepan advertised in magazines—and show you "Wear-Ever" trade-mark.

We do not believe in capital punishment but if there was ever a man who should have been executed, it was Henry Clay, Bertha Jr., who murdered his innocent beautiful young wife for a thing upon the streets.

There is talk of an effort for Taft delegates in this state. Will our Ex-Congressman again lead six other citizens and two aliens into such a convention as their strength in Oneida county showed two years ago and call it the will of the people?

If you cannot destroy your competitor by fair means, use foul and see how that works. So acts our local special interest organ and acts speak louder than words. Something must be done to get rid of the organ that exposes how the few live at the expense of the people.

Doctor C. A. Richards yesterday spoke before the county board in behalf of a county hospital for tuberculosis patients, to be established under the provisions of the new law. We believe this an excellent idea especially for other counties and think it would be a good move for a committee to be appointed to investigate the feasibility of such a project for Oneida county.

HE LOVES THE PEOPLE

We are not surprised that little man Friday thinks $1000 a year a big salary. A man judges those things by his past ability to earn. Mr. E. O. Brown is President of the Rhinelander Power Company, which sells lights to the city and at the same time he is a city official which is directly in violation of law as per Ch. 69 laws of 1909 but Mr. Brown cannot resign for fear the city could not fill this place. Of course this is a great loss to Mr. Brown but he loves the dear people.

ADDRESSES BOARD

At the County Board meeting Tuesday afternoon, A. P. Hirst, Engineer of the State Highway Commission gave a most interesting and profitable talk on road making. Mr. Hirst is a good talker and a well posted man on road making.

While we live in a new county, we believe we have a class of men that wish to do everything in their power to improve Oneida county.

While they do not wish to make any mistake, they do wish to learn the best methods of doing things and then go ahead.

CARY PLAYS TO INTERESTS

It is exactly as was predicted by the New North last week. The attack on the University by State Superintendent Cary was printed in all the special interest organs and organlets displaying monstrous headlines.

It is meat for them. The University has been bold in its denunciations of plunder of the public utilities for the few and the special interests insist that the University shall attend strictly to books and nothing else, but the university claims in its broadest sense that it shall study the great public questions and propound them for the good of the people of the state.

Of course, U. P. Cary has always attacked the university and now he is playing to the special interests knowing that he has no standing with the other crowd and hopes to play politics and get votes by the attacks but we feel he will gain nothing by these methods.

We have an institution of which every citizen of Wisconsin should be justly proud. Educators all over the world give the University of Wisconsin unstinted praise, why not the citizens of Wisconsin?

SEEMS INCONSISTENT

Under a ruling made by the postal authorities a few years ago, publishers of newspapers and periodicals are prohibited from mentioning in their publications any raffle or other game of chance that remotely resembles a lottery, under pain of having their publications barred from admission to the mails. This ruling of the postoffice department covers the entire postal system and thus applies to all publishers in the United States who circulate their publications through the postoffice.

It is somewhat strange, in view of this ruling against lotteries, that the government itself disposes of the Indian lands opened to settlement by means of a lottery and causes advertisement of these events to be published in newspapers, thus compelling the publishers to violate the postoffice ruling. So the government punishes a newspaper publisher for doing for private persons what is permissible when done for the government itself.

Even a mention of a raffle for a quilt held by some church society, renders a publisher liable to the exclusion of the paper from the mail, while the government expects him to mention the lotteries conducted under its auspices for disposing of public lands by chance.

WHAT THEY FEAR

City taxpayers will remember the $10,000 or more that had to be paid by the people of this city in fighting the water works bond cases without any benefit to the people, and they will perhaps question the wisdom of the City Fathers in fighting the Rhinelander Lighting company, and bring lawyers at Madison to present the case before the Rate Commission as it means an extra expense of $500 or $1000, with the chance that no reduction in prices will be made but that the city will lose its $2000 a year worth of free lights. The Commission has always ordered free lights cut off whenever they have been asked to regulate lighting or telephoning companies, and no exception will be made of Rhinelander.—Rhinelander News.

We are not surprised that the Brown organ does not wish the Rhinelander Lighting Company investigated by the Railroad Commission. That half rate while other people are paying full rate looks good to them and they fear the Commission will upset their splendid little profits of many years duration, but all good things must end. Neither did they wish the suit about the water works, for they feared some of the musty facts of the past might be dug up. It is well remembered that the water works were sold to the town of Pelican once upon a time.

If truth does not suit the purpose of this special interest organ, it modifies it to suit its wishes. The fact is the entire cost of the city water works including the suit was just about the same as it would have been without the suit—but there was that fear of digging up something as there is in the investigation of the Lighting Company.

ADDRESS BY PROF. MITCHELL

Oshkosh Normal Instructor Talks To High School Pupils

5 Prof. F. E. Mitchell of the Oshkosh Normal visited the high school Tuesday and at the opening of the afternoon session addressed the students. His remarks were humorous and well taken by the students who applauded him heartily. One moral was brought to the attention of the students by Mr. Mitchell when he likened a person's life to a string. "A string," said he, "may be very, very long, but however long, it might be a person may, by starting at one end and following it along to reach the other end, finally. The one end may take one's fancy, but the other end when found may be by no means pleasing. So in life, some beginnings may be pleasant but end disastrously, while again other lives by carefully planning the start may be pleasant at all times." "A person," continued Mr. Mitchell, "should always think carefully as to what may be the outcome of a series of pleasures should the beginning be ever so seductive."

Mr. Mitchell visited both in the grades and the high school, partly to witness the work done by normal graduates, and partly to see if the work done by high school students is good preparatory work for prospective normal school students.

NOW MAN AND WIFE

Miss Elizabeth Green and Fred Bresette Are United

Miss Elizabeth Green and Frederick Bresette, both of this city, were joined in matrimony at St. Mary's church, Tuesday morning. Rev. Fr. Bertram performed the ceremony. The bridesmaid was Miss Clara Green and Francis J. Green was groomsmen.

Both young people are well known and well liked in Rhinelander. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Green, old residents of this city, and has spent practically all her life here. Until a short time ago she was employed as saleslady at the Leader store. Her friends are many.

Mr. Bresette has resided in this city several years and is a worthy young man, highly spoken of by all who claim his acquaintance. He holds a position with the Rhinelander Paper Co.

The New North unites with the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Bresette in wishing them a happy wedded life.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Coulette, Jr., welcomed a little son to their home, Friday morning.

BLYTHE SEES NO CHANCE FOR TAFT

Political Expert Says President Will Get Even Less Than He Hopes For

That President Taft will be defeated if given another nomination in 1912, is the conclusion reached by Samuel G. Blythe, political expert for the Saturday Evening Post. Mr. Blythe's opinion, which appears in the corrupt issue of his paper, is the result of a careful investigation of political conditions in nearly every state in the Union, and his investigations carried him over more miles than did the recent campaign trip of President Taft. His first article, which appeared in the November 25th issue, deals with political conditions in the West. What he found in that section of the country is told in a summary in the concluding paragraphs of his article.

"If conditions remain as they are," says Mr. Blythe, "which is more than likely, and if Wilson, for example, is nominated against Taft or any other candidate for whom the Republicans have a friendly feeling—Mr. Taft will carry few of the states I have included in this summary. He will carry Utah and Wyoming without question, and probably Nevada. He will lose California, and he will lose Montana and Colorado. The chances strongly favor his losing Oregon and Washington. If the Mormons are strong enough he will carry Idaho. He will lose Arizona and will probably carry New Mexico. Assuming that conditions remain about as they now are, Mr. Taft will be hard put to carry Kansas against a man like Wilson, and will lose North Dakota and Nebraska as well as South Dakota. He will have desperate trouble in Nebraska and be in most difficult case in Iowa and Minnesota. The chances are against him in all three states unless the miracle works out and opinion shifts to the other side.

"Mr. Taft is scheduled to do everything in his power to solidify his shattered party. His pursuit of the Trusts and Trust-makers is to be more active. Some more of the big men are to be indicted if possible. He will come out against lynching, et cetera, to help along with the negroes. He will continue on world arbitration and universal peace. He will overlook no bet; but the fact is his recent trip did him no good, and these demonstrations will not do him much, if any. So far as this section of the country is concerned Mr. Taft can hope for little—and he will get even less than he hopes."

CONFISCATED PARKER

Board Member Could Not Resist Temptation At Poor Farm

Tuesday, Poor Commissioner and Mrs. Peter Doyle entertained the members of the county board royally with an elaborate dinner and many expressions of kindness were passed and in the heads of the county board members were words of gratitude but just as the jolly bunch was leaving, a member of the board espied a splendid specimen of dressed pig outside on a pole and carried it away with him. This makes us think of the drowning man whose life the Neenah hunter saved and then when the unfortunate man departed he stole a fine bunch of ducks the hunter had shot as a reward for the hunter's kindness.

However, there is this difference, after the member of the board reflected over the enormity of his crime, he took up a collection among the members apparently as a present to Mrs. Doyle but in reality to pay for the stolen pig.

GOSSIP CAUSES OUTRAGE

Lincoln Center, Kan., Nov. 29. The reason for the tarring of Miss Mary Chamberlain, the pretty Shady Bend school teacher—and the only reason—was the "devil of gossip."

The "tar party" which stands partly confessed and partly convicted of the assault upon Miss Chamberlain was composed of men who were, until that time, among the "best citizens" of the town. But they were possessed of jealous and gossiping wires.

A pretty wedding took place at St. Peter's church Monday morning, when Rev. Elbert united in marriage Miss Frances Dykas of this city and Frank Jolin of Rhinelander. The attendants were Miss Tillie Bartkowiak of this city as brides maid and Merritt Jolin of Rhinelander, a brother of the groom, as best man.

The bride was attired in a gown of white satin, trimmed with fringe and carried a bouquet of roses. Miss Bartkowiak wore a dress of white brilliantine trimmed with lace.

A reception was held for the newly married couple Monday afternoon and evening at the bride's home 323 6th avenue, a wedding dinner being served at 5 o'clock, at which a number of invited guests were present.

With no rent to pay, no street car fares or other of the usual unavoidable city expenses to meet, the barge and canal, boat men of the Netherlands live possibly the most frugal lives of any of the urban working classes in Europe. They, with their families, exist in the hulls of their craft. The rooms are small, with little ventilation, and necessarily low to enable the boats to pass under the bridges. The decks form the children's playground. Chickens are sometimes kept on the boat and constitute the kitchen.

RED CROSS SEALS NOW BEING SOLD

People Are Urged To Purchase
Stamps And Help The Good Cause

"If every man, woman, and child in Rhinelander bought only ten Red Cross seals we could far exceed the per capita record of last year."

"If every person bought thirty Christmas seals we would exceed the highest per capita sale of any city in Wisconsin last year."

In the 1910 sale Columbus led with a per capita record of 25.33. Rhinelander was second with a record of 19.22 seals sold on an average to each person. Kenosha won the open-air-school with a per capita sale of 5.98. All other cities and towns fell below these figures.

A new plan has been adopted by the Wisconsin Anti-Tuberculous Association this year to keep in better touch with the many cities competing for prizes. Each local manager has been furnished with two postals to be filled out and mailed to headquarters on December 10th and 20th, respectively.

On these postals the managers will enter as accurately as they can the number of seals distributed and the number actually sold up to the date on which the card is mailed. It is thought that this will give a fairly accurate ground for conjecture on which cities and towns are in the lead before the actual close of the sale and increase the enthusiasm attendant on the contest.

The actual awards of course will be made only after complete and detailed returns are in, as last year.

The Anti-Tuberculous Association hopes that there will be a merchant or business man in Rhinelander who will not use a Christmas seal on every letter he sends out between now and Christmas.

A MOTHER'S GRATITUDE

Many a Mother in Rhinelander Will Appreciate the Following:

Many a strong man and many a healthy woman has much for which to thank mother. The care taken during their childhood brought them past the danger point and made them healthy men and women. Children are generally bothered at some period with incontinence of urine, and inability to retain it is oftentimes called a habit. It is not the children's fault—the difficulty lies with the kidneys, and can be readily righted if taken in the proper way. A Rhinelander mother shows you how.

Mrs. Garrett Lee, 230 Lincoln St., Rhinelander, Wis., says: "We have given Doan's Kidney Pills a thorough trial in our family and know that they act just as represented. One of our children suffered from disordered kidneys and complained of backache. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally procured from Reardon's Drug Store and it did not take them long to bring complete and lasting relief."

HOW WEAK WOMEN

May Be Made Strong at Small Expense and No Risk

There are hundreds of women in this vicinity, weak, thin, run-down, tired out and nervous. Such women need Vinol just as much as did Mrs. Jane Pepper, of 2207 Howard street, San Francisco, Cal., who says:

"I have used Vinol for some time with particularly gratifying results. I was run down, weak and debilitated, and my appetite was gone. After taking several bottles of Vinol I found my condition greatly improved, and I do not hesitate to recommend Vinol to anyone similarly affected."

Vinol is not a secret nostrum, but a delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil, which will create an appetite, tone up the digestive organs, make pure blood and create strength.

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you.

LIVED HERE 25 YEARS

Mrs. L. Lago Was One Of County's Oldest Residents.

After nearly three months of suffering Mrs. L. Lago, one of the early residents of this county and city, responded to the final summons at her home on Margaret Street at six o'clock Tuesday morning.

At no time during Mrs. Lago's long illness was any hope entertained for her recovery and her death was constantly expected by her husband and friends. For eighty-eight years she was unable to partake of solid food and her life was prolonged by only such nourishment as could be administered in liquid form.

Mrs. Lago was sixty-five years of age and a native of Vermont. She and her husband came to Oneida county twenty-five years ago and for many years resided on a farm near this city. Among the old settlers she had a large acquaintance and was held in high respect by everyone.

Aside from her husband, deceased, she was survived by one brother, Wm. Sanders of Waupaca county. The funeral will take place Thursday afternoon from the home and Rev. Clemens of the M. E. Church will officiate.

ONLY A NEWSPAPER GUY

I see a man strut through a jam in a hall,

Take a seat 'mid the speakers and chat with them all.

"Is this Murphy?" I ask, "that the crowd he defies?"

"No," says some one, "he's one of the newspaper guys."

I see a man start on the trail of a crook,

And he scorns all assistance, but brings him to book.

"Mr. Burns?" I inquire. Some one scornfully cries—

"Burns? Naw. He's just one of them newspaper guys."

I see a man walk through the door of a show

When great throngs are blocked by the sign S. R. O.

"Is this Goovin himself, that no ticket he bu's?"

"Well, hardly. He's one of those newspaper guys."

I see a man knock on a president's door.

And the sign "No admittance" completely ignores.

"Is this Morgan, that privacy's rights he denies?"

"Morgan? Shucks! It's just one of those newspaper guys."

And some day I'll walk by the great streets of gold.

And see a man enter, unquestioned and bold.

"A saint?" I'll inquire, and Old Peter'll reply:

"Well, I should say not, he's a newspaper guy."

BIG LIVE STOCK SHOW AT CHICAGO

11th Annual Exposition December 2 to 9 Will Be the Greatest Of All

As year succeeds year, and leaves in the pages of history, records of progress in literature, arts and manufactures, so the International Live Stock Exposition, held Dec. 2 to 9, proves its usefulness and worth by its continuous and steady progress towards achievements in the breeding and feeding world that have today, although only the 11th year of its existence, made it pre-eminently not only the greatest exhibition of its kind, but an educational institution that is leaving its mark upon the youthful stockmen of this country in a measure so prolific of practical information, as to place it in the front ranks of that school of knowledge so absolutely essential to the progress of live stock breeding.

There is no limit to the possibilities in the development and extension of live stock interests in this vast and prolific country, with its rapidly increasing population, wealth and power, and great and important as the International Live Stock Exposition is at the present moment, it is only in the swaddling clothes of robust and vigorous youthfulness. The ever increasing improvement of the various breeds of live stock represented at this great International Show, is only a pioneer revelation of what it will accomplish as time goes on.

Great achievements are not attained in a day, nor are the practical and lasting benefits of scientific breeding accomplished in a decade, but when such improvements in live stock are manifest in this, but 11th year of the existence of this great institution, the result of which is a foundation stock far in advance of anything the country has ever known before, what must inevitably be the result of another ten years with the ever increasing means at hand through this great exposition, the state fairs, and the splendid agricultural institutions of the land, but a still further improvement far more rapid, far more useful, and far more far-reaching in its results.

The Chicago live stock exposition will pass through all the stages of babyhood, youth, and maturity, in Chicago itself, the great central metropolis of this extraordinarily fertile land, for this city by the very reason of its position, must inevitably continue to be the center of the great farming and breeding industries of the country; for it is the nucleus, not only from which the rays of progress extend, but to which the forces of development are attracted; and so it is, and so it will be, that when decades are counted upon decades, the great city of Chicago, the future of which the generation of today has no conception, will still be the center of the live stock world and the live stock industry, a monument of the past, and a beacon that still points to a greater greatness.

There is little danger from a cold or from an attack of the grip except when followed by pneumonia, and this never happens when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. This remedy has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of colds and grip and can be relied upon with implicit confidence. For sale by all dealers.

BOXING CONTEST ENDS WITH DRAW

Sohr and Christensen Go Ten Rounds Before A Large Audience

At the Grand Opera House Monday night Ben Sohr and Johnnie Christensen, two clever local light weights boxed ten rounds before one of the largest crowds that ever witnessed a boxing contest in this city. Referee John Goulette decided the bout a draw, which decision met with the approval of the spectators.
In the first round of the contest Sohr had the ill luck to injure one of the fingers on his right hand which tended to handicap him. However, he continued to remain in the ring and although the injury caused him much pain, made a good show ing.
As a manipulator of the gloves, Christensen is not behind in the game and his ring work was a surprise to those who had never seen him perform before.
Both boys were in the "pink of condition" when they entered the ring and displayed evidence of long and careful training. While very few effective blows were exchanged the pair put up a rather classy exhibition and every one in the house felt that they had received their money's worth. It is probable that the lads will mix again in the near future for the championship of the city.

Ad. Wolgast, Jr. and Hobo Dougherty, Jr. went four fast rounds in a draw.
Fayette and Genett were scheduled to travel for six rounds, but in the third round Fayette threw off the gloves, declaring that his opponent was not adhering to the rules of the match.
Noah White, who promoted the show, intends to hold boxing entertainments regularly during the winter.

$25 Kitchen Cabinet

That is what we are going to give for the best loaf of bread baked from

ARDEE FLOUR

We have secured the exclusive agency for this northern brand of flour and by actual experience can guarantee it to be the highest grade of flour on the market. Nothing but Dakota and Minnesota hard spring wheat is used in the manufacture of ARDEE FLOUR but even with such wheat, the finest that can be had, much depends on how the miller grinds it. The patent grade, like cream, depends on how much of the lower grade is skimmed off; the more skim milk, the richer the cream. ARDEE flour is the richest of the flour portion of the wheat, twice as much of the lower grade being taken out as in ordinary flours. Ardee is a very dry, thirsty flour, which demonstrates quality, it absorbs more moisture; makes more loaves from a sack and costs less per loaf. Bread made from Ardee flour is delicious, very light, creamy, white loaves that keep moist and fresh many days, bread that will delight the family and of which any house-wife may be proud. And to make it an inducement for everybody to try a sack of this flour, we will hold a

Bread Baking Contest
Friday, December 22d, 1911

AT WHICH TIME WE WILL GIVE FOR

1st Prize: Kitchen Cabinet. 2d Prize: Two Sacks Ardee Flour.
3rd. Prize: One Sack Ardee Flour.

Contest will be conducted in a fair, square manner. Every loaf of bread will be numbered so that it will be judged on its own merits regardless of the contestants. We will have an expert from the Hubbard Mill to test all bread entered in this contest by a scientific method.

Important Rules of the Contest.—One loaf of bread is required from Ardee flour, and only one from each family. Bread must be baked the day before the contest and delivered at The Armory by one o'clock, Friday, December 22nd, 1911. Professional bakers are not allowed to enter this contest. Bread can be baked in any size tin to enter this contest.

Wanted every house-wife in Rhinelander and the surrounding country to take part in this bread baking contest, which will be of benefit to every progressive house keeper. An expert judge and lecturer on the art of bread making will be here on Friday, December 22nd, from the Ardee flour home mill, remember the time, a complete bread making demonstration will be demonstrated to all present, nothing of this kind so far has been given here in Rhinelander and every lady that takes personal interest in good bread making or how to make good bread better is cordially invited to take personal interest and attend this lecture in order to make this a success.

And as bread is used in our daily fare more than any one article of food it is interesting to learn the lesson how bread has earned its true title the "staff of life". Let your next sack of flour be Ardee, try it. And if not, you are welcome just the same to attend our lecture and judging of the bread which takes place at the Armory on Friday, Dec. 22, at 2 o'clock. Remember the time and the place and the phone call 156 for Ardee flour.
